Dear Parent/Carer,

'Love Through the Ages': A Level Conference at UCL Institute of Education-
Wednesday, 30th November 2016

As you are aware the A Level unit of study is titled 'Love Through the Ages' where students study various texts focusing on 'love'. To this end a trip has been booked to the A Level conference at the Institute of Education where the students will have the valuable opportunity to attend a study day providing comprehensive support for all students tackling this new A-level option. In five outstanding sessions, speakers will enthuse, inform and entertain with a diverse range of talks on poetry, prose and drama. This programme will give students the vital information, insights and confidence to achieve maximum examination success. The day will be chaired by former Chief Examiner Stella Canwell MBE.

We will catch the train into London Euston from Watford Junction at 9.30am. All students should meet staff at Watford Junction at precisely 9.30am. The conference will end at 4pm so we anticipate to be back at Watford Junction by 5pm where youngsters need be collected by parents/carers. If there are any changes to the timing we will ensure that students call home and inform you of this.

Students will need to take money on the day for train tickets and/or lunch and snacks. Students are responsible for their money and any other belongings they wish to take with them at all times. Members of staff are not responsible for any personal belongings or money.

May I please stress again students must be dressed appropriately and must behave according to the rules of the school.

The price for the trip is £22.00 which includes tickets and all insurance and must be paid online using the schools internet payment system. Reply slips should be returned to the Finance Office by Friday 21st October. We apologise for the short time scale but due to the popularity of the conference there are limited tickets, so tickets will be sold on a strictly first come first served basis.

Yours sincerely
