

Year 9 – Duologues: Autumn

Your target for this year is: _____

I can statements	1	2	3
I can commit purposefully to rehearsal with good focus.
I can explain and apply techniques relating to Stanislavski and naturalism.
I can work to develop and improve my use of skills over rehearsal time in preparation for performance.
I can use a good range of subject specific vocabulary to describe ideas of technical design (costume, set, lighting and sound.)
I can recognise the health and safety areas that need to be considered with technical design.
I can learn lines for performance.
I can perform a scene with confidence and good audience awareness.
I can use a range of appropriate vocal and physical skills in a scene.
I can evaluate the effectiveness of my performance skills.
Feedback & Targets:

Assessment Autumn Term
Styles and conventions Quiz Submitted: Y / N / L	Score:	ATL:
Stanislavski Quiz Submitted: Y / N / L	Score:	ATL:
Design Quiz Submitted: Y / N / L	Score:	ATL:
Exam Performance Completed: Y / N / L	Score:	ATL:
Overall Grade for Assessment:
Feedback & Targets:

Year 9 – Documentary Theatre: Spring

Your target for this year is: _____

I can statements	1	2	3
I can explain what documentary theatre is and explain why it might be used, and some challenges of the genre.
I can give an opinion on a piece of theatre with justification.
I can use a range of subject specific vocabulary to describe performance skills and technical elements of theatre.
I can analyse how a performance communicates meaning to an audience.
I can form a balanced evaluation of the success of a performance.
I can complete research to support the creation of a piece of documentary theatre.
I can write a scene using the correct format and a range of appropriate stage directions.
I can work co-operatively in a group, creating and refining ideas.
I can show respect to the subject material in a piece of documentary theatre and recognise the reasonability in performing using the material.
Feedback & Targets:			