Enquiries

Y7 Knowledge Organiser – The Norman Conquest 1066-1100

	anding possible &
1. What was England like before 1066?	2. How did England come to have a French king?	3. How did William I keep control of England?	4. Meanwhile, elsewhere: The Norman Empire

Key Words

Archers Soldiers with crossbows. Archers Soldiers with crossbows. Bac. 'Before Christ' used to show dates before 'O'. Baron An important landowner and vassal to the King (a tenant) Bayeux Tapestry An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. Besiege The act of a carrying out a siege Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. Century One hundred years. Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Feyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it.	incy	ey vvoius
A tribe originating from northern Germany. Archers Soldiers with crossbows. Bac. 'Before Christ' used to show dates before '0'. Bayeux Tapestry An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. Besiege The act of a carrying out a siege Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. Century One hundred years. Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Feyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. Charles Charles A tribe original to show dates before '0'. Bayeux Tapestry An embrodiery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a fetter to pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it.		Term	Definition
3 Archers Soldiers with crossbows. 4 B.C. 'Before Christ' used to show dates before 'O'. 5 Baron An important landowner and vassal to the King (a tenant) 6 Bayeux Tapestry An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. 7 Besiege The act of a carrying out a siege 8 Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. 9 Century One hundred years. 10 Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. 11 Circa Approximate (used for dates) 12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	1	A.D.	'Anno Domini' (Latin for 'in the year of our lord') used to show dates after '0'.
4 B.C. 'Before Christ' used to show dates before 'O'. 5 Baron An important landowner and vassal to the King (a tenant) 6 Bayeux Tapestry An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. 7 Besiege The act of a carrying out a siege 8 Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. 9 Century One hundred years. 10 Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. 11 Circa Approximate (used for dates) 12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	2	Angles	A tribe originating from northern Germany.
Baron An important landowner and vassal to the King (a tenant) An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. Besiege The act of a carrying out a siege Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. Century One hundred years. Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	3	Archers	Soldiers with crossbows.
Bayeux Tapestry An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during a after the Norman Conquest of 1066. The act of a carrying out a siege Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. Century One hundred years. Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	4	B.C.	'Before Christ' used to show dates before '0'.
after the Norman Conquest of 1066. The act of a carrying out a siege Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. Century One hundred years. Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Gorrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	5	Baron	An important landowner and vassal to the King (a tenant)
8 Cavalry Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans. 9 Century One hundred years. 10 Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. 11 Circa Approximate (used for dates) 12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	6	Bayeux Tapestry	An embroidery (sewed pattern) showing the events leading up to, during and after the Norman Conquest of 1066.
9 Century One hundred years. 10 Chronology The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. 11 Circa Approximate (used for dates) 12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	7	Besiege	The act of a carrying out a siege
The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened. Circa Approximate (used for dates) Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	8	Cavalry	Soldiers on horseback, used by the Normans.
11 Circa Approximate (used for dates) 12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	9	Century	One hundred years.
12 Commission A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone. 13 Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	10	Chronology	The arrangement of events/dates in the order in which they happened.
Domesday Book A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth. A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	11	Circa	Approximate (used for dates) owned the land and what the land was worth. 14 Earl A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King. 15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	12	Commission	A formal arrangement in which work is completed for someone.
15 Exile The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country. 16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	13	Domesday Book	A survey commissioned in 1085 by William I to collect information on who owned the land and what the land was worth.
16 Feudal System The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty. 17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	14	Earl	A member of the nobility, given land to rule in the name of the King.
17 Fealty A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron). 18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	15	Exile	The state of being banished (sent away permanently) from one's country.
18 Feigned retreat Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of it formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	16	Feudal System	The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty.
formation 19 Fyrd Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon. 20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	17	Fealty	A vassal's sworn loyalty to a lord (eg. a knight's loyalty to a baron).
20 Garrisons Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it. 21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	18	Feigned retreat	Norman battle tactic of pretending to run away to lure the enemy out of its formation
21 Government The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.	19	Fyrd	Ordinary men (usually farmers) who would fight when called upon.
	20	Garrisons	Troops stationed in a castle or town to defend it.
	21	Government	The system by which a community or country is directed or controlled.
To persistently carry out attacks on an enemy or an enemy's territory.	22	Harry	To persistently carry out attacks on an enemy or an enemy's territory.
23 Heir A person entitled to inherit something.	23	Heir	A person entitled to inherit something.
24 Hierarchy A system in which people / things are arranged in order of their important	24	Hierarchy	A system in which people / things are arranged in order of their importance
25 Housecarls Trained and equipped earls, paid for their support by the King.	25	Housecarls	Trained and equipped earls, paid for their support by the King.
26 Illegitimate Not allowed by law.	26	Illegitimate	Not allowed by law.

	Term	Definition
27	Infantry	Soldiers on foot
28	Inherit	To receive money, land or a title after the death of someone.
29	Invade	To use force in an attempt to take control of an area or country.
30	Law	The system of rules by which a country is controlled.
31	Motte and bailey castle	A type of Norman fortress used to station troops that could be used to suppress rebellions. These castles featured a motte (a mound of earth) and a keep (a tower at the top).
32	Nobility	The richest and most powerful men in England
33	Normans	People of Scandinavian origin who settled in Normandy from c. 912.
34	Oath	A solemn promise.
35	Papal Banner	Formal support given to a king by the Pope
36	Peasant	A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)
37	Pope	Head of the Roman Catholic Church.
38	Rebel	To rise up against a ruler.
39	Revolt	To rise up against a ruler, often using violence
40	Saxons	A tribe originating from north western Germany and the Netherlands.
41	Siege	A blockade of a city or a castle
42	Shield wall	The Saxon tactic of forming a protective line by joining their shields together.
43	Succession Crisis	A crisis in which there is an unclear heir to the throne.
44	Suppress	Stopping something from continuing.
45	Survey	To examine and record information about something.
46	Sub-Regulus	Acting king (when the king was unable to attend to his duties)
47	Tenants-in-Chief	Most powerful barons and bishops.
48	Vikings	Scandinavians who raided and settled in many parts of North West Europe.
49	Villein	A peasant
50	Witan	Anglo-Saxon council which was often responsible for choosing the heir to the throne.

Key Individuals

Key Individuals		Timeline
	Individual	Description	1042	Edward Confessor becomes king
\dashv		•	1051	William supports Edward when the Godwins rebel – William claims this is when Edward
51	Edward the	King of England who died in January 1066.		promises him the English throne.
	Confessor		1053	Godwins make peace with Edward and are given their land and titles back.
52	Edgar	Nearest relative to Edward the Confessor	1060	Harold Godwinson becomes King Edward's sub-regulus (a deputy king)
	Aetheling	(his grandfather was Edward's half-brother)	1064	William claims Harold Godwinson swears to uphold his claim to the English throne whilst
		and supported by the Witan.		visiting Normandy.
53	Harald	A Viking Warrior (Hardrara meaning 'Hard	4 th -5 th January 1066	King Edward the Confessor dies.
	Hardrada	Ruler'), Edward the Confessor's brother	6 th January 1066	Harold Godwinson is crowned king of England by the Witan
		(Harthacanute) had promised Hardrada's	20 th September 1066	Harold Hardrada (7000 Vikings) defeats the Anglo Saxons (3500) at the Battle of Fulford Gate;
		father (Magnus) the throne.		Harold marches North to deal with the Viking threat, marching 190 miles in 4 days.
54	Harold	The Godwin family were the most powerful	25 th September 1066	Battle of Stamford Bridge; Harold Godwinson takes Harold Hardrada's men by surprise.
ا ``	Godwinson	noble family in England; they controlled	28 th September 1066	William lands at Pevensey and builds temporary Motte and Bailey castle; Harold marches
		Wessex. Edward was married to Harold's		South (250 miles in 13 days)
		sister and Harold said that Edward had	14 th October 1066	The Battle of Hastings; In a 9 hour battle, William Duke of Normandy defeats Harold promised the throne to him on his		Godwinson.
		deathbed. He acted as 'sub-regulus' in the	October-December	William establishes control over defiant towns and their people en route to London through final years of Edward's reign.	1066	violent means
55	Tostig	Brother of Harold Godwinson. After being	25 th December 1066	William, Duke of Normandy is crowned king, having marched to London and secured oaths of
	Godwinson	exiled by his brother he supported Harald		loyalty from the remaining earls.
		Hardrada's claim to the throne.	1067	-William distributes land in areas of potential rebellion to loyal barons
56	William of	Illegitimate son of Richard Duke of		-Rebellions continue in Northumbria, and there is an attack on Dover Castle (Rebellion of
	Normandy	Normandy (also known as William 'the		Eustace). There are rebellions on the Welsh border marchlands.
		Bastard'). Distant cousin of Edward the Confessor. It is believed that William had	1068	Rebellions in south west – siege of Exeter; Edwin and Morcar flee William's court to go North sent support when Edward was threatened	1069	Rebels burn a Norman earl (Robert de Commines) to death in Durham; rebellion spreads to
		with rebellion in exchange for becoming		York; William responds with the Harrying of the North (burning the area and salting the land, heir to the throne.		causing mass starvation and devastation to the area). This use of terror ends rebellion in the
57	Edwin, Earl of	Supporters of Godwinson. Fought against		north. The effects are long lasting; 80% of Yorkshire is still recorded as 'waste' in 1086.
	Mercia and	Hardrada at the battle of Fulford. Later	1069	Rebellions in the west
	Morcar, Earl of Northumbria	supported Edgard Aetheling.	1069	Harrying of the North ends rebellion in the north. 80% of Yorkshire is still recorded as 'waste'
	Northumbria			in 1086.
		An avilad Anala Cavan nahlaman vikalada	1070	First Norman stone castle is built in Wales
58	Hereward the Wake	An exiled Anglo-Saxon nobleman who led a rebellion leading to the Siege of Ely 1071.	1071	East Anglia rebellion of Hereward the Wake (Siege of Ely) is defeated
	wake	"The Wake" meaning "The Watchful".	1075	'Revolt of the Earls' in the North is easily defeated and ends with the execution of Waltheof,
		The trane meaning the tracengular		Earl of Northumbria, the last English Earl in England on 31st May 1076
			1085	Commissioning of the Domesday Book
59	Waltheof	Earl of Northumbria, led revolt against William in 1075, was beheaded.	1086	Creation of Domesday Book
		william in 1075, was beneaded.		By 1086, in 20 years, William had built nearly 500 castles (approx. one every two weeks)
60	Orderic Vitalis	An English chronicler and Benedictine monk	1087	Death of William I, William Rufus becomes king William II
		who wrote the Historia Ecclesiastica (a	1088	Norman Barons rebel; Pevensey castle is besieged chronicle of Anglo-Saxon and early Norman	1096	Rufus recognised as the ruler of Normandy
		England).	1100	Rufus is killed, his brother Henry is crowned king Henry I
			1100	Trained is kinea, his stother frem y is crowned king frem y i