

Kings Langley School

Unlocking Potential for Life

How will my child be able to contribute their views?

- The Learning Support Department has an open door policy and students can come and speak to any member of staff within the department.
- The Pastoral teams are available to students in the Pastoral office throughout the day.
- Students who have learning plans will be interviewed individually to contribute to the information given to staff.
- Students attend subject consultation evenings with their parents.