Y7 Knowledge Organiser Term 5 Part 1 – Conflict at home and abroad 1377-1485

Enquiries

How did Early Modern monarchs secure their dynasties?

- 1. Why was England at war with France?
- 2. How did a Tudor win the Wars of Roses?

Key Words

	Ney Words
Term	Definition
Accession	The attainment of a position of power (usually becoming king/queen).
Act of Accord	This stated that Henry VI remain as King but Richard Duke of York was his heir
Alliance	A relationship formed for mutual benefit
Armagnacs	Supporters of the house of Orleans in France
Besiege	The act of a carrying out a siege.
Black Death	A global pandemic (1348) killing 40% of the English population.
Burgundians	Supporters of the Duke of Burgundy
Campaign	A series of military operations
Cavalry	Soldiers on horses
Chevauchée	Burning and violently attacking enemy land to weaken the enemy
Chivalry	Expected behaviour of knights
Civil War	A war between citizens of the same country.
Crossbow	A mini wooden catapult used to fire bolts through armour - range of 100m.
De Facto	In practice but not necessarily with the right to
Depose	To be removed from a position of power
Dysentery	Illness that affects the intestines
Feudal System	The social system whereby land was exchanged for service and loyalty.
Heresy	Belief which is at odds with what is accepted by most
Heretic	Someone whose beliefs are at odds with what is accepted by most

Term Definition  Hundred Years' War Series of conflicts fought between England and France over succession to the French throne between 1337–1453. It lasted 116 years.  Infantry Soldiers who fight on foot  Longbow A long bow that could fire an arrow over 200 metres.  Lord Protector A title for ruler of Britain when the monarch is unable to rule  Nationalism Strong support for and pride in your country  Peasant A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)  Pilgrim A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)  Poll Tax A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous Occurring after death  Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System  Wages A regular payment earned for work	rchs secure their dynasties?
succession to the French throne between 1337–1453. It lasted 116 years.  Infantry  Soldiers who fight on foot  Longbow  A long bow that could fire an arrow over 200 metres.  Lord Protector  A title for ruler of Britain when the monarch is unable to rule  Nationalism  Strong support for and pride in your country  Peasant  A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)  Pilgrim  A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)  Poll Tax  A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous  Occurring after death  Predecessor  The person who held your position before you  Rebel  A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council  A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent  A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons  Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege  A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute  A law.  Stronghold  A well defended place  Taxation  Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor  A person who betrays someone  Treason  The crime of betraying your country  Usurp  Taking a position of power by force  Villein  A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Term	Definition
Longbow A long bow that could fire an arrow over 200 metres.  Lord Protector A title for ruler of Britain when the monarch is unable to rule  Nationalism Strong support for and pride in your country  Peasant A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)  Pilgrim A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)  Poll Tax A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous Occurring after death  Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Hundred Years' War	succession to the French throne between 1337–1453. It lasted
Lord Protector       A title for ruler of Britain when the monarch is unable to rule         Nationalism       Strong support for and pride in your country         Peasant       A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)         Pilgrim       A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)         Poll Tax       A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth         Posthumous       Occurring after death         Predecessor       The person who held your position before you         Rebel       A person who rises up against a leader or government         Regency Council       A group who rules because the monarch cannot         Regent       A person who rules because the monarch is unable to         Schiltrons       Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)         Siege       A blockade of a city or a castle         Statute       A law.         Stronghold       A well defended place         Taxation       Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country         Traitor       A person who betrays someone         Treason       The crime of betraying your country         Usurp       Taking a position of power by force         Villein       A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System </th <th>Infantry</th> <td>Soldiers who fight on foot</td>	Infantry	Soldiers who fight on foot
NationalismStrong support for and pride in your countryPeasantA person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)PilgrimA person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)Poll TaxA tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealthPosthumousOccurring after deathPredecessorThe person who held your position before youRebelA person who rises up against a leader or governmentRegency CouncilA group who rules because the monarch cannotRegentA person who rules because the monarch is unable toSchiltronsTightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)SiegeA blockade of a city or a castleStatuteA law.StrongholdA well defended placeTaxationMoney that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the countryTraitorA person who betrays someoneTreasonThe crime of betraying your countryUsurpTaking a position of power by forceVilleinA peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Longbow	A long bow that could fire an arrow over 200 metres.
Peasant A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)  Pilgrim A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)  Poll Tax A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous Occurring after death  Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Lord Protector	A title for ruler of Britain when the monarch is unable to rule
Pilgrim A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)  Poll Tax A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous Occurring after death  Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Nationalism	Strong support for and pride in your country
Poll Tax A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth  Posthumous Occurring after death  Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Peasant	A person of low status, usually a farmer labourer (worker)
Posthumous Occurring after death Predecessor The person who held your position before you Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog) Siege A blockade of a city or a castle Statute A law. Stronghold A well defended place Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country Traitor A person who betrays someone Treason The crime of betraying your country Usurp Taking a position of power by force Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Pilgrim	A person who journeys to a holy place (a pilgrimage)
Predecessor The person who held your position before you  Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Poll Tax	A tax which everyone is required to pay, regardless of their wealth
Rebel A person who rises up against a leader or government  Regency Council A group who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Posthumous	Occurring after death
Regent A person who rules because the monarch cannot  Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Predecessor	The person who held your position before you
Regent A person who rules because the monarch is unable to  Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Rebel	A person who rises up against a leader or government
Schiltrons Tightly formed groups of foot soldiers who form a shieldwall with spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Regency Council	A group who rules because the monarch cannot spears and pikes pointing outwards (like a hedgehog)  Siege A blockade of a city or a castle  Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Regent	A person who rules because the monarch is unable to
Statute A law.  Stronghold A well defended place  Taxation Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Schiltrons	, , ,
Stronghold       A well defended place         Taxation       Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country         Traitor       A person who betrays someone         Treason       The crime of betraying your country         Usurp       Taking a position of power by force         Villein       A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Siege	A blockade of a city or a castle
Taxation  Money that citizens and businesses pay to the government to be spent on the country  Traitor  A person who betrays someone  Treason  The crime of betraying your country  Usurp  Taking a position of power by force  Villein  A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Statute	A law.
spent on the country  Traitor A person who betrays someone  Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Stronghold	A well defended place
Treason The crime of betraying your country  Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Taxation	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Usurp Taking a position of power by force  Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Traitor	A person who betrays someone
Villein A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System	Treason	The crime of betraying your country
,	Usurp	Taking a position of power by force
Wages A regular payment earned for work	Villein	A peasant tied to the land in the Feudal System
	Wages	A regular payment earned for work

Y7 Knowledge Organiser Term 5 Part 1 - Conflict at home and abroad 1377-1485

Wilson of the state of the stat

How did Early Modern monarchs secure their dynasties?

Date	Timeline
1337	The start of the Hundred Years' War
1346	The Crecy Campaign
1348	The Black Death arrives in Dorset, England
1377	Death of Edward III; Ascension of Richard II.
May-June 1381	The Peasants' Revolt
September 1399	Richard is deposed by Henry Bolingbroke, son of John of Gaunt = Henry IV
1413	Henry Bolingbroke (Henry IV) dies; Henry V ascends
October 1415	The Battle of Agincourt
1422	Henry V dies; Henry VI becomes king
1428	The Siege of Orleans
1450	Jack Cade rebellion against Henry VI
1460	The Battle of Wakefield
February 1461	The Battle of St Albans
April 1483	Death of Edward IV; his eldest son Edward V ascends but is never crowned.
June 1483	The two princes are missing; Richard III (Brother of Edward IV) is crowned.
1485	The Battle of Bosworth; Richard III is killed. Henry Tudor is crowned Henry VII. A marriage is arranged to Elizabeth of York, daughter of Edward IV.

Key Individuals	Description
Edward I	King of England from 1272-1307
Edward II	King of England from 1307 until he was deposed in 1327.
Edward III	King of England from 1327-1377
Edward, the Black Prince	Son of Edward III and heir to the throne. Died in 1376 due to dysentery.
John of Gaunt	Son of Edward III, an influential figure during the reign of Richard II
Richard II	Son of the Black Prince, King of England from 1377-1399.
Henry Bolingbroke (Henry IV)	Son of John of Gaunt, King of England from 1399-1413
Henry Percy (Hotspur)	Member of the Percy family who rebelled against Henry IV
Henry V	King of England from 1413-1422
Charles IV	King of France during the outbreak of the Hundred Years' War in 1337
Charles VI	The 'Mad' King of France ruling from 1380-1422
Charles VII, the Dauphin	King of France from 1422-1461
Joan of Arc	A French peasant who played a key role in French Victory in the HY
Henry VI	King of England from 1422-1461 and later 1470-1471
Margaret of Anjou	Queen of England and wife of Henry VI from 1445-1461 and later 1470-1471
Edmund, Duke of Somerset	Grandson of John of Gaunt, known for his rivalry with the Duke of York
Richard, Duke of York	Grandson of Edmund Duke of York, Lord Protector of England durin Henry VI's mental collapse
Elizabeth Woodville	Married to Edward IV in secret
Edward IV	King of England from 1461-1470 and later from 1471-1483. Son of Richard, Duke of York.
Edward V	Son of Edward IV, King from April-June 1483 until his deposition by his uncle, Richard III
Richard III	Brother of Edward IV, King of England from 1483-1485
Elizabeth of York	Daughter of Edward IV, married Henry VII - mother to Henry VIII.
Henry Tudor (Henry VII)	King of England from 1485-1509